Time Spent—Record how long the activity, assignment, or service took.

- 4. Description of Learning or Service —Include a short description of the service or learning opportunity. Also note how the service or learning opportunity was delivered, such as email, website, worksheet packet, or videoconference.
- 5. Student's Progress and Experience—Record your child's experience of the learning opportunity or service. Did they enjoy it? Did they nd it too di cult? Was it e ective? Atenjo

STUDENT NAME

GRADE_____

SCHOOL

Date	Type of Learning/Service (i.e., Required school work; Optional school work; Special Ed. Service; Meals; Other)	Time Spent	Description of Learning/Service	Student's Progress & Experience (Challenges to accessing materials; interactions with school staff; student progress; any other relevant information)
Example 03/23	Required school work	1.5 hrs	<ol> <li>hr: Math assignment from website subtracting 100's.</li> <li>br: Read Chapter 1 of "A Separate Peace." Answered questions from paper packet.</li> </ol>	My son had trouble learning a new math concept. He was distracted while reading.

Date	Type of Learning/Service (i.e., Required school work; Optional school work; Special Ed. Service; Meals; Other)	Time Spent	Description of Learning/Service	Student's Progress & Experience (Challenges to accessing materials; interactions with school staff; student progress; any other relevant information)

Date	Type of Learning/Service (i.e., Required school work; Optional school work; Special Ed. Service; Meals; Other)	Time Spent	Description of Learning/Service	Student's Progress & Experience (Challenges to accessing materials; interactions with school staff; student progress; any other relevant information)

CONTACT US

We're interested in hearing about your experience using this tracker. Please email comments and questions to us at cradmin@splcenter.org. Please remember that this tracker is provided as a tool for students and families. Nothing in it constitutes legal advice. Using it doesn't mean that SPLC attorneys can, will, or do represent you.